

THIRD-PARTY APPLICATION FORM

Third-party payments, including employer reimbursements, must be considered with other financial assistance when determining a student's eligibility for federal aid. If you are receiving a payment from a third-party agency, complete the sections below to ensure your financial awards are properly calculated.

The information below will also help us to invoice the third-party agency. Attach any copies of a letter of credit or contract that verify you will be sponsored by a third-party. If you will receive payment directly from the third-party, your balances are still due according to any promissory notes or payment plans signed for the applicable time period.
